Dear fellow religious educators and youth ministers,

In January 2009 we invited Paul Koleske to speak to our high school youth. We opened the event to the parish and had a decent turn out.

Paul's music and message is a universal one. His stories and songs touch the hearts of young and old. I recall several of the high school youth talking with Paul after the concert. They were moved to thank him and share some of their own personal stories with him. This conveyed to me that his message was well received by the teens whose hearts and minds were open to hear what God is doing and had done in Paul's life.

God bless,
